FREDERICK MILITARY ACADEMY

SITUATED IN THE TANGLED METROPOLIS OF TIDEWATER, VIRGINIA, GROWING WITH PROGRESSIVE PORTSMOUTH, THERE LIVES A SCHOOL — A SCHOOL WHICH MEANS SOMETHING TO ALL OF US.

FREDERICK MILITARY ACADEMY IS HERE AND WILL BE HERE LONG AFTER OUR FOOTSTEPS HAVE CEASED TO ECHO ON THE WELL WORN "COMPANY STREET." BECAUSE WE WERE HERE, A PART OF THIS SCHOOL WILL JOURNEY WITH US TO THE HEIGHTS WHICH WE ARE SURE TO ATTAIN. RECALLING OUR EXPERIENCES HERE AT FMA IS SOMETHING WE WILL DO AGAIN AND AGAIN. SOME OF THEM WILL UNDOUBTEDLY BE UNPLEASANT, BUT WHO CAN EVER FORGET THE COMRADESHIP, THE TRIUMPHS, AND EVEN THOSE NIGHTS UNDER THE FENCE. THIS WAS OUR LIFE FOR A BRIEF SPAN OF TIME AND ALL THESE MEMORIES ENRICH OUR LIVES.

WE OF THE ANNUAL STAFF HAVE TRIED TO CAPTURE SOMETHING OF THE TRUE SPIRIT OF THE REAL CADET IN THE PAGES OF THIS, YOUR YEARBOOK. WE HOPE YOU LIKE THE RESULTS. MAY WE PRESENT . . .

The SPARTAN '65

CAMPUS LIFE . . . A NEW EXPERIENCE

"Follow me boys, and you'll go far."

. . . GETTING BACK INTO THE GROOVE

"The nasty ole Colonel said I had to cut it all off."

Ooops!

Guess who?!

WE GOT JAZZED ON THE MILITARY . . .

"No leave, Heh! Heh!"

Big man—little rifle

"I've got a tiger in my tank."

"FMA wants YOU"

"A little bubblegum and they'll never know the difference."

"You didn't need that ear anyway."

"Give him some green ones."

Ready for Federal

. . . AS USUAL

"'The Righteous Brothers"

ROCK-OUTSVILLE!

". . . and if you step on my feet one more time, buster, I'm gonna belt you one."

"I get to take the flag down every night."

"Another night shot to———"

"Hold it! There's been a recount."

MRS. CONWAY WAS UNREMITTING IN HER BATTLE AGAINST THE "SPOON BENDERS"

"The big "G" stands for Goodness."

"uuulch!"

"Military Order"

"If you think this is bad, you should've seen what I found last night."

ATHLETIC EVENTS CAME . . .

"How'd SHE get in here?"

"Y'all get down ta Fosh Hall an getcha londry."

"The Chief and his peace-pipe"

"The bomb failed, but the still worked."

. . . AND WE WENT

"What am I doing here?"

MAY SEEMED A LONG WAY OFF

"The big fat one must be the bus driver."

"How'd my MG get up there?"

"Sieg Heil"

The Colonel piles it on thick.

"There was one in the James Bond movie, so why can't I have one?"

RELUCTANTLY WE REPLACED SATURDAY INSPECTIONS WITH CLASSES

"I voted for Bobby Baker."

"Forget! Hell!"

"Graft can be fun."

The Honkin' Hondas

"For forty days and forty nights."

Richard Crowder gently coaxes down distraught Delmar photographer from perilous perch when "Ole Bill" decided to end it all after viewing feeble efforts of Spartan Staff.

. . . AND WE FINALLY FINISHED THE ANNUAL

WELL, WHAT A TIME IT WAS! WE LEAVE YOU TO RECALL THESE MEMORIES . . . AGAIN AND AGAIN, AND WE BID YOU FAREWELL AT THIS POINT. THE CONCLUSION OF THIS PUBLICATION IS RATHER DULL IN PART . . . BUT FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO LIKE TO SEE YOUR NAME IN PRINT, WE URGE YOU TO PROCEED. THE SUBJECTS COVERED ARE AS FOLLOWS:

DEDICATION

Out of the deepest awareness and appreciation of a dedicated man who has performed "above and beyond the call of duty", the 1965 Spartan Staff has the honor of giving special recognition to Col. Robert C. Plaine. A man naturally endowed as a leader, a man of integrity and moral standards beyond question, Col. Plaine must be given personal credit as one of the guiding forces which has in eight short years seen Frederick Military Academy blossom as an institution of higher learning. As Frederick has distinguished itself academically, its military program also has received notable recognition.

When Col. Plaine signed up as Professor of Military Science, the job of directing a cadet corps was a new experience, but the military way of life was something he had lived with for some twenty odd years. During those years, he was stationed on bases all over the U. S., including Hawaii and Alaska, and in such foreign countries as Burma and Korea. In 1954 he retired from the armed forces.

Retired life must have been a little too lax for Col. Plaine though, because in 1959 he became the first P.M.S. at F.M.A. Those who have known the Colonel have found him to be a strong believer in self-discipline, and many are the cadets who have benefitted from his influence. For all this and much more, the Annual Staff takes this opportunity to express its deepest felt thanks from the Corps.

This Is Our Colonel . . .

Justice Lawrence W. I'Anson

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

In December of 1948 Mr. Fred W. Beazley, Sr. chose the first Board of Trustees of the Beazley Foundation. He was looking for a way to improve this community, and this was the first step of a program which has grown far beyond anything Mr. Beazley originally hoped for. All members of the Board were people who Mr. Beazley knew well and who were in sympathy with what he was trying to do.

Mr. Beazley had been considering the opening of a private school for some time, and in 1950 a survey was made to determine whether an institution of this type would be feasible. It was found that, indeed, there was a need for a private school in this area, and a combined military high school and junior college was thought to be the most practical. In 1958, through the joint efforts of Justice I'Anson, Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Beazley, a dream was realized in the founding of what is today Frederick Military Academy.

Since the Board was chosen seventeen years ago, it has not lost a single member through resignation. Vacancies have occurred only through death. Succeeding members are chosen by the Board, itself. Among the members, and one of the founders was Fred W. Beazley, Jr., now deceased. Before his death on December 28, 1962, he was a very active member of the Board, and he gave much of his time and financial backing to the activities of the Beazley Foundation.

We express our sincerest appreciation, remembering that these members of the Board of Trustees are people who are taking upon themselves to help their fellow man.

FRED W. BEAZLEY, SR.
FOUNDER

ADMINISTRATION

This school year, 1964-65, marks the fourth year of Frederick Military Academy as a separate institution from Frederick College. Our school has gone far in this short time, and we have every reason to believe it will go even farther in the future. We have met our share of growing pains and frustrations, but they are to be expected in any striving young school.

The past year has been one of progress and development. With our new commandant, Col. West, the acquisition of a new assistant P.M.S., Capt. George Reynolds, and the procuring of ten new teachers, a spirit of vitality and growth has pervaded every aspect of life at Frederick. Certainly no one can help noticing this; indeed, it affects us all. New construction and renovation of our present physical plant is making Frederick a more comfortable place in which to live and grow.

This year has seen the full application of a wholly college preparatory program as our standards and entrance qualifications have risen, offering every student a strong basis for a college education.

Frederick seems at last to be fulfilling its destiny in all fields in a way that must surely please and astound friend and critic alike.

COL. PHILIP G. INSCOE

Col. Inscoe is a many-sided individual with a mammoth job which demands a talented, versatile person. He devotes all of his energies to provide ample opportunities for the training of young men not only in the scholastics, athletics, and the social graces, but also in the military skills. Because he is a dynamic man of high standards and concern for his fellow man, he is the leader that is so capably directing the advancement of Frederick Military Academy. He has inherited an ability to analyze individuals and situations so that an intelligent solution to any problem arising is soon forthcoming from his office. We have seen him smile with an aching back, alert when directing the fire department, and stern when the situation demanded firmness. Frederick has been marked for success by the influence of this man. We pledge him our full support and allegiance.

LT. COL. FLOYD H. WEST

From North Carolina to Anzio—from Private to Major—from Arizona State University to Frederick Military Academy—came Floyd H. West, who now leads the cadets of FMA from childhood to manhood and maturity. His integrity, fortitude, and righteousness of purpose has become an example for all at Frederick Military Academy to admire and follow. He has that rare ability to say "no" with firmness and understanding, and to listen and counsel intelligently. By his actions we know that he believes in the integrity and honor of each cadet; moreover, he strives ever to develop our potentials to the fullest. We owe our commandant more than a few words of appreciation for his efforts—we owe our confidence and loyalty.

COMMANDANT

DIRECTOR OF GUIDANCE

MAJ. CLARENCE P. MOORING

Rare personalities are at a premium in any institution of learning, but this gift is choice when it is directed in the lines of Guidance and Counseling. Frederick has profited from the three years of counseling that Major Mooring has conducted. In the group of four hundred boys, each cadet becomes an individual when he needs counseling, if he needs to discuss a change of schedule, or just a chat to bolster the morale.

Aside from having the personality and disposition to guide and direct, Major Mooring has the professional training gained through years of study and application. He maintains this high standard of professionalism through keeping in close contact with current publications and lectures.

Not only do the cadets profit from Major Mooring's training and dedicated interest, but also the faculty has confidence in his ability and trust in his integrity. We marvel how order and production can come from the mountain of work piled high on his desk, but with his drive and dedication to everything that encompasses FMA, he manages to serve all of our needs.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

As usual, the vernacular was very popular among the students this year, but the English instructors did an excellent job of teaching cadets the use of more sophisticated terms of expression—at least in writing term papers. Since the ability to write what one wishes to say is important to a person not only as a student but also for the rest of his life, the English department places a great deal of emphasis on theme writing and vocabulary study.

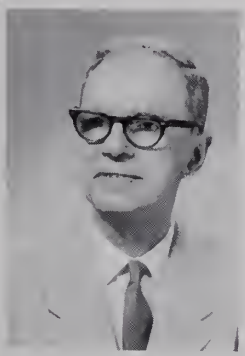
MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Capt. Jukkola

Capt. Garrett

Lt. Col. Hargis

Lt. Reynolds



Mr. Reinke

Mr. Hollowell

To the student seriously interested in a study of engineering or physics, one need not mention the importance of a good background in mathematics. Not only does the academic program offer the regular courses in algebra, geometry, and trigonometry but also a course in calculus and analytical geometry is available to the exceptional student who wishes to further develop his scholastic potential.

Capt. Eichelberger

Lt. Phelps

Capt. Daughtrey

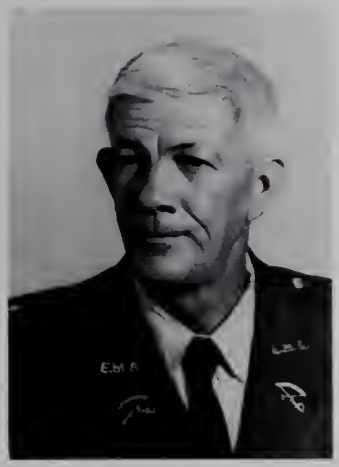
Maj. Stokes

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

We are living in exciting days of new discoveries in science and technology. The rapid developments in nuclear physics, biochemistry, and other major areas have added immeasurably to the importance of science in our lives, in the curriculum, and to the drama of everyday life, as man truly reaches for the stars. The cadet is offered a complete science course, starting with general science, then through biology, chemistry, and finally culminating in physics.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

The Department of Social Studies at Frederick is one embracing all aspects of this subject and offers the student a comprehensive course including history, government, economics, and geography. Thus the cadet perceives all facets of the study of social relationships and the functions of society so that he may be better equipped to live in today and tomorrow's world.



Capt. Lindsay

Lt. Colonna

Maj. Gelbach

Capt. Ruiz

Maj. Jordan

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Any student interested in the pursuit of a liberal education must study a foreign language for at least several years. In an effort to give the individual more choice in this field, the Academy added German to its list of French and Spanish this year. Further evidence of the broadening of academic horizons can be seen in the addition of a third year course in Spanish.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

An ability to type and take notes well is of indispensable value to the successful college student, and the academic program offers these elective courses to any cadet wishing to take them. Also, the aspiring business major is offered a course in bookkeeping. Hence, the Commercial Department offers a complementary balance to the other courses.

RELIGION DEPARTMENT

Frederick is not only interested in the academic and physical development of every cadet, but in the spiritual betterment of himself as well. There is a course offered in Bible, which includes a study of both the Old and New Testament, and the faculty chaplains are available as advisors for any cadet wishing to consult them. Thus the third aspect of a young man's development—that of the soul—is added to the mind and body.

Lt. Presson

Capt. Bennett

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Realizing that the well-rounded individual must be fit both physically and mentally, the Academy has taken steps to provide an athletic program in which all could participate. The intramural competition is keen, but cadets are encouraged to perfect their abilities in as many different sports as possible. Facilities for tennis, basketball, football, track, softball, volleyball, and wrestling are available for the use of every cadet. Besides the required intramural activities, all cadets must attend one hour of gym class a week.

Capt. Outland

Maj. Davis

Mrs. Francis

Mrs. Kent

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT

The library is visited at least occasionally by every cadet. Its seven thousand volumes are available for research, required reading, or personal entertainment. As a supplement to the necessary books, the library subscribes to approximately fifty magazines, newspapers, and other periodicals. Since it is of utmost importance to the full development of the student, all efforts have been made to make the library both attractive and useful.

'65 MILITARY REVIEW

In its few short years, the Corps of Cadets has established a record of which the school can be proud. Under the direction of Col. Robert C. Plaine, the cadets have won the distinction of N.D.C.C. Honor School every year since the Academy was founded in 1958. In such annual events as the Oyster Bowl, the Armed Forces Day, and the Azalea Festival parades, the sharp-stepping cadets of F.M.A. have been recognized time and time again for their marching efficiency.

The military is much more than just ceremonies and parades, though. All students are required to attend two hours of classroom instruction in military science aside from the many hours of time spent on the drill field. For the true cadet, his military bearing is something which he takes with him into the dormitory and into the classroom, and through the constant training in leadership and self-discipline, the cadet grows into a stronger individual.

Scholars' Future

Engineering, Math Draw FMA Team

PORTSMOUTH — Engineering and math are the chief interests of the boys who comprise the scholastic achievement team at Frederick Military Academy this semester.

Only three of the young men plan to follow these interests at military institutions — the others will shed uniforms when they graduate from Frederick.

The eight students, two from each of the four high school grades, were named to the scholastic team on the basis of high academic records this semester. One of them will be the Frederick representative on the Tidewater Scholastic Achievement Team, to be announced at the end of the semester.

Twenty-one students serve on this area team — the top student from each of the 21 high schools in Tidewater with an enrollment of at least 300 pupils. Both the school and area teams are sponsored each semester by the Ledger-Star as vehicles for recognizing and congratulating scholastic accomplishments in local schools.

Frederick Military team members are:

Robert Jefferson Garnett, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Garnett of 208 Parkway Drive, Newport News. On the team twice, this senior would like to attend the University of Richmond and make a career in law.

Richard Frederick Crowder, 18, a veteran of four school teams. Interested in industrial math studies at the College of William and Mary, this senior is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Crowder Jr. of Mechanicsville.

Richard Gordon Davis, who plans to study engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. This 17-year old junior has never been on the team before. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Davis of Chuckatuck.

Charles Ottis Midgette, 16-year-old junior also new to the team. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Midgette of Belhaven, N.C., Charles would like to attend North Carolina State and study electronic engineering.

Q. John Tamm Jr., 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Tamm of Kensington, Md. Another team newcomer, John is aiming for a military career after Virginia Military Institute. He is a sophomore.

Ronald Paige Isbel, 16-year-old sophomore. Making his first team appearance, he would like to study engineering at Virginia Military Institute. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Isbel, 2 Vacation Lane, Chesapeake.

Steven Franklin Thaxton, a freshman whose future plans call for math studies at Duke University. This 14-year-old team newcomer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Thaxton, 3912 King St., Portsmouth.

Michael Benson Coleman, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coleman, Moyock, N.C. Michael would like to attend the U.S. Naval Academy and become a marine biologist. He is a freshman and new to the team.

OFFENSIVE UNIT

Three years ago Emory Davis left his job as Freshman Football Coach at the College of William and Mary to fill the position of Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach at Frederick Military Academy. In the years that have followed, Frederick has had one of the finest teams short of college varsity on the East Coast. The reason for this is quite simple. Coach Davis believes as did Mohammed—if the mountain won't come to you, then you go to the mountain. Such an array of talent as was our football team this year just doesn't happen to get together by coincidence; there must be an outside force. Coach Davis was this force. A combination of administrative ability and a vast knowledge of football, coupled with a desire to produce a great team, has aided him in coaching Frederick teams to a three year record of 23 wins, 5 losses, 1 tie, and an undefeated season.

As one local sports writer commented, the FMA football team is one which tried suicide and lived. The Cubs completed an eleven game schedule that ranks with the strongest ever attempted by a prep school. This year the "military eleven" conquered such crack squads as Bullis Prep, Fork Union Military Academy, the varsity team of the Newport News Apprentice School, Columbian Prep, and the freshman teams of V.P.I. and Temple University. Despite this array of man-eaters, Emory Davis brought Frederick his third winning season in as many tries.

This year's team did an outstanding job both offensively and defensively. In one game the defense held our opponents to -4 yards (yes, that's a minus) rushing, while the offense grinded out 238 yards. For the season, the Cubs piled up 2800 yards total offense while the defense gave up only 1441.

Some of those players which helped to make such a winning season possible were:

Most passes completed	Fella Rhodes	30-69
Most yards gained passing	John Tutino	431
Most passes received	Rus Denof	16
Most yards gained receiving passes	Ron Davidson	177
Most tackles-defensive lineman	Gerald Kent	112
Most tackles-linebacker	Dave Richards	142
Most tackles-defensive halfback	Buddy Smith	104
Most tackles-safety	Ron Davidson	141
Longest punt	Ron Davidson	73
Most yards-kickoff returns	Ronnie Spruill	92
Most yards-punt returns	John Watts	240
Most passes intercepted	John Watts	4

Capt. George Standin
BATTALION COMMANDER

A NATIVE OF SULFOLK, VA., GEORGE STANDIN ENTERED FREDERICK MILITARY ACADEMY IN THE FALL OF 1962. IN THE YEARS FOLLOWING, HE HAS NOT ONLY DISTINGUISHED HIMSELF ACADEMICALLY BUT HAS ALSO EARNED THE RESPECT OF THE ENTIRE CORPS OF CADETS FOR HIS ABILITY AS A LEADER. THE JOB OF BATTALION COMMANDER IS NOT AN EASY ONE, BUT HIS PERFORMANCE OF DUTIES CANNOT BE TOO HIGHLY COMMENDED. UPON GRADUATION THIS MAY, HE HOPES TO ENTER THE U. S. MILITARY ACADEMY FOR A MAJOR IN CIVIL ENGINEERING. WE OF THE CADET CORPS WISH GEORGE ALL THE SUCCESS IN HIS FUTURE ENDEAVORS, AND WE ALL REALIZE THAT HIS DEPARTURE WILL BE A GREAT LOSS TO F.M.A.

LAST WILL

Being of Sound Mind and Body, I . . .

Chip Maurer leave to FMA a set of Falcon keys and 45 days of restriction.

Allan Hopkins leave to R.C.P. stripes, pips, etc.

Mark Craige leave to Hodges Hall 20 empty shaving cream cans.

"Dickyburger" leave my ability to spoof the military dept. to next year's Battalion Exec.

Rick Jacobson leave after four years of havoc.

Howell Steverson leave to R.P. a used girdle.

Sam Stokes leave to Col. West my blonde hair and red car.

Larry Abbott leave to Nat Harrison one box of cheese.

James Pell leave to Captain Ruiz fifty cents to buy FMA.

Frank Weisel leave to any junior 346 tales of lurid women, written in Yiddish.

Carl Roethke leave Col. Plaine one used bugle to play with.

Thomas Holt leave to this school and the military office 14 demerits.

Fred McDermott leave this school 2 long years of my short life.

Neil Howard leave my monogrammed desk to Col. Plaine and classroom "N".

Jesse Zedd leave my dirty rifle for Col. Plaine to clean.

Jon Lewis leave my ability to talk my way out of demerits to anyone who ever needs it.

Mike Zimmer leave my sympathy to anyone who comes between Capt. Sale and his Drama Club.

Benn Fleming leave FMA with no regret.

Rick Gray leave the ability to smuggle a civilian into ranks, and get away with it.

George Mahler leave my best to Henry T. Haines.

Rick Lawrence leave my height to the future 1st/sgt. of "C" Comp.

William Heller leave the broken windows in Boyce Lumber Company to Col. Plaine.

Thomas Bell leave one Eichel "BURGER" with onions.

Trip Goolsby leave my spastic arms to Captain Sale.

Walt Thaxton leave my warped sense of humor and persecution complex to Capt. Garrett.

Jim Briggs leave the night of Sept. 26, 1964 to the Alligator Wrestler.

Red Avery leave for better years in the "Cambridge Folk Music Society."

Randy Bray leave 5 teeth from first gear on Frank Weisel's Morris Minor to posterity.

Johnny Bunn leave my ability not to get drafted to E. Carey Knight.

Arthur Russell leave my troubles to John Hinch.

Bob Anderson leave sixty demerits seven months restriction, and four stripes to FMA.

Jack Crannell leave my talent for getting girls at the wrong time to "Happy" Jim.

AND TESTAMENT

Faculty officer of the Day General Reinke

BURNED UP DEPT. All cadets participating in the marshmallow roast at the Recreation Center will turn themselves into the Commandant, immediately. (Capt. Soupy)

CLIP DEPT. All cadets are reminded that they are to follow the example of their Military Instructors on the question of regulation haircuts. But remember, if it don't grow, it don't go! (Capt. McKinney, Battalion Butcher)

STRAIN DEPT. Cadets are reminded that PHYSICAL FITNESS is an essential part of military life. Cadets unable to pass minimum standards (such as inability to do 1 push-up) will report to Lt. Colonna for torture. (Lt. Wuensch)

SPLAT DEPT. Cadets will NOT throw snowballs, even in cases of self-defense against Faculty Officers children. (Maj. Ayres, Maj. Davis, Col. Hargis)

DING DONG DEPT. Cadets are warned for the LAST time against abusing telephone company property. Remember, this is the 37th LAST warning, so we really mean it this time. (Capt. Alexander G. Bell)

WITHDRAWAL. Effective May 29, 1965, the SENIOR CLASS OF 1965 has withdrawn from school. Instructors, please report grades earned and hope that you will get as great a bunch for next year. (CLASS OF '65)

THE VERY LAST WORD

Well, this is it. Your 1965 SPARTAN. If you like it fine . . . if you don't, well you paid for it so you might as well try to enjoy it.

Now that everyone has either been tremendously repulsed or greatly impressed by the Annual Staff's fantasy; maybe you can revive yourself long enough to read this "Last Word" and be repulsed again and again.

Our year at Frederick has been unique in many ways. Everything from recreation center bon fires to miscellaneous objects swinging from the flagpole.

This year started with cadets arriving to see that the campus had sunk five feet and various creeks had overflowed their banks to stagnate around the "ole oak tree". Registrar reported on one of his infrequent visits to registration lines that apparently thirty-nine hundred extra students had been granted admission. Only three missing, two lacerated, and one death due to starvation while standing in line . . . President stated vast modernization had begun during the summer. Cadets discovered extent on second floor. Coach Emory Davis revealed that seventy-five new football players, with lucrative expense accounts and unlimited liberty privileges, had been partying it up on campus since the middle of August . . . Mother Lawrence reported two of last year's cadets found locked in canteen for duration of the summer. City Morgue was notified immediately . . . Cafeteria staff announced thirty-two different ways of naming Italian food and twenty-five ways of making it taste worse . . . Postmaster Gregory announced new and efficient ways of losing letters. Campus Barber McKinney regretfully informed the Corps that first shipment of barber shop bowls to be extensively used for hair cutting this year were broken in transit. Sanitary Laundry announced the installation of a new $100,000 button-crushing machine . . . Rumor still persists that doughnuts served in the cafeteria on Sunday morning were rolled down High Street Saturday night. Local radio announcer received commendation from FMA Staff as being the first to really organize the Corps for a worthwhile cause . . . Varsity Club announced three for one stock split after successful merger with the Coca Cola Company. A, T & T stock took unexpected drop on 1st of September, 1964, due to major destruction of company equipment (taking place in south-eastern Virginia) Capt. "Steamboat" Wright announced purchase of ten "B" green tricycles for use of supply hall workers. World record set by relay team of four speedy cadets when they performed the impossible feat of picking up a bundle of laundry and returning to dormitory room in less than one-half hour. Commandant squelches rumor that physical fitness is the most important thing an FMA cadet can concern himself with (Battalion Adjutant agrees) . . . Rumors persist that closet in Commandant's office is filled with Middle Ages torture devices for interrogation of perspective demerit marchers . . . FMA campus beauty greatly enhanced by the addition of a spacious veranda to the Hall Cafeteria. Hall Cafeteria announced new midnight pick-up and delivery service. Also announced new modern education course titled, "How the Savages Really Had It Better" (In one easy lesson; remove knives, forks, and spoons).

Were you repulsed? GOOD. So when you wake up in the morning, to make your day a little bit brighter, just roll over and scream at the top of your lungs I LOVE FREDERICK . . . don't knock it unless you've tried it . . .
